FRENCH PRESIDENT EXPECTED TO RESIGN

NEW ANTI-BOLSHEVIK POLICY AND BREAK WITH BRITAIN IS CAUSE

MILLERAND SLATED FOR PRESIDENCY AND BRIAND FOR PREMIER IN CASE DESCHANEL STEPS OUT OF CHAIR

PRESS AIRS ANGLO-FRENCH DISPUTE

PARIS, August 13—The resignation of President Deschanel is imminent as a result of France's new aggressive anti-Bolsheviki policy and the diplomatic misunderstanding with Great Britain it was reported in high political circles today.

It was also declared that it was considered likely that Premier Millerand would be appointed President and Briand appointed Premier.

The press today generally decared that "recognition of General Wrangel, anti-Bolsheviki governor by France was a mere incident in the gradual division on the Russian policy between France and Great Britain. This division has extended for months, the newspapers say.

France and Great Britain were negotiating today to smooth out the differences with regard to Russia. They will discuss what to do in case the Minsk armistice parley fails to bring a cessation of hostilities.

Premier Millerand in an address at Noyon made the first public expression of France's attitude and said that "the Allies will remain united. Differences of opinion are inevitable because of the difference in national character but unity will be continued."

PARIS, August 13—France today sent a note to the United States declaring it holds the same views with regard to Russia as were expressed by President Wilson in his note to the Italian umbassador.

LONDON, August 13—Communication between Premier Lloyd George and Premier Millerand on recognition by France of General Wrangel, anti-Bolsheviki governor was continuing this afteroon, it was learned in official quarters. The general impression was that the situation was easier but that a week end conference would be necessary.

ROME, August 12—Italy today appears likely to align itself with Britain. There has been no official expression on the subject of diplomatic misunderstanding between Britain and France only newspaper comment on the opinions of members of the government who favor Britain because of her desire of peace with Russia rather than France's belligerent attitude.

PASQUALE, INCURABLY ILL, MAY DIE BEFORE BEING BROUGAT TO TRIAL

NORRISTOWN, August 13—Authorities here today express fear that Augusto Pasquale held in connection with the kidnapping of Blakely Coughlin might die before he could be brought to trial. Pasquale they said has lost 30 pounds since his arrest at Egg Harbor, N. J., July 12, and was suffering from an incurable disease. A preliminary hearing on a charge of murder was expected to be held today. The police believe the baby is dead and are bending their efforts to find the body so as to have a clear case against the prisoner.

Montgomery county officials took steps yesterday looking to the arraignment of Auguste Pasquale, "The Crank," on the charge of murder, the officials believing that he killed fifteen-months-old Blakely Coughlin, who was kidnapped June 2. It is now the expressed belief the baby is dead, that Pasquale played a lone hand when he abducted the child and that to escape conviction, he murdered the baby and disposed of the body.

ANOTHER FINDS GAS AND LIQUOR COSTLY MIXTURE

Another convivial soul tried mixing gasoline with booze, or vice versa, today and the kick of the mixture ran him straight into the arms of the Pennsylvania State Police. Accordingly he was made to travel the same path as had been trod yesterday by the fellow who took too much of the Woodland road.

Both of these fellows hoped to get off with a one hundred dollar fine before the Justice of the Peace, but the Justice in looking over his instruction book found that driving a car while intoxicated was a misdemeanor which could not be settled before his court.

Both were accordingly bound over to the next term of court when they will be asked to tell "His Honor" about their wanton disregard for the life and limb of fellow men.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cowder and Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Graham have returned from a five day visit to Toronto, Canada, Buffalo and Niagara Falls, N. Y.

80TH DIV. VETS TO OBSERVE "WRITE TO YOUR BUDDY" WEEK

Several thousand veterans of the Blue Ridge Division in Virginia, West Virginia and Pennsylvania already have expressed their intention of attending the first annual reunion of the Eightieth Division Veterans' Association, which will be held in Richmond, Va., September 4th, 5th and 6th, but they will observe the week of August 8th to 14th as "Write Your Buddy Week," and are confident that many other men can be gathered together for the reunion.

Each man has been asked to write his Buddy, whether the lasting friendship was made in the barracks or in the trenches, and to urge him to journey to Richmond for the reunion. There will be a renewal of old friendships, the swapping of stories and experiences, and a resurrection of that comradeship that existed among the men of the Eightieth while they were in action.

"No matter whether your Buddy lives in West Virginia, Pennsylvania or the Old Dominion write him and urge him to meet you in Richmond," the veterans were told. "Perhaps your letter will be the one thing that will bring him to Richmond, where as much time as possible will be given for unit reunions. Tell him also that arrangements may be made for you two to bunk together, and when he remembers the old days surely he will come along." The expenses while in Richmond, thru the arrangements being made by the reunion committee, will be next to nothing to those who cannot afford an expensive trip, for $5.00 will cover their expenses for the three days they are in the city.

Second only in importance to the permanent organization of the Eightieth Division Veterans' Association, which will be completed at the business meeting on September 6th, will be the election of one-half of the Executive Council, which is composed of eight members. Four will be elected this year and four at the next reunion. One member of the Council will be elected this year from Virginia, West Virginia and Pennsylvania, and a fourth at large.

DEVOTEES OF ROD AND GUN CLUB THIS EVENING

Every hunter, fisherman and sportsman generally should attend the meeting in the Arbitration Room of the Court House this evening at 8:30 o'clock and join the Clearfield County branch of the Pennsylvania Wild Life League. This organization has a great work before it and everybody interested in wild life and the out-of-doors should make sure to join.

Every member of a hunting club or camp should make it his business to affiliate with this organization.

Representatives from many sections of the county are expected to be present at the meeting.

REV. SNAVELY RETURNS

Rev. C. C. Snavely, of the West Side Methodist Church, has returned from a delightful vacation spent on a Blair County farm. The vacation was very much enjoyed, even though three different couples had to go elsewhere after visiting the parsonage to have the "marrying parson" tie the marital knot. He'll on the job at the old stand from henceforth, however.

Mrs. J. Boag and son Park, Mr. and Mrs. John Boag of Bomaman and James Stureet are visiting relatives in Lakement, N. Y.

RECORD SHOWS COX NOT A WHIRLWIND AS VOTE GETTER

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—"It is common knowledge and frequent comment among political workers that the nomination of the two candidates on the Democratic ticket was determined by expediency—the playing of a forlorn hope," declares the Republican Publicity Association, through its President, Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Jr., in a statement issued today.

"Cox was chosen because he comes from the same state as Harding, and Roosevelt was named as his running mate because he bears the name of a distinguished American. It was hoped that Cox could carry Ohio for the Democratic ticket and Roosevelt swing New York. There is no likelihood, however, that the voters of New York will be misled by the use of the name of the greatest American of recent years, nor is there anything to justify the hope that Cox may be able to carry Ohio against Harding.

"Study of election returns show Harding to be stronger in Ohio than is Cox. And, moreover, under ordinary circumstances, Ohio is a pretty dependable Republican state. Beginning with the election which placed Abraham Lincoln in the White House and recorded the first victory for the Republican party, there have been fifteen national elections, and Ohio has gone Republican in 13 of them. The only occasions on which Ohio went Democratic were in 1912 when the Republican party was divided, and in 1916, when the country was deceived by the "kept-us-out-of-war" propaganda. In 1912, although the Democrats led, the combined vote of the Republicans and the Progressives exceeded that of the Democrats, showing that the defeat of the Republican was due to division and not to preference for Democratic policies. Out of 22 members of Congress from Ohio, 14 are Republicans.

"In 1912, when Cox was first elected Governor, there was a progressive candidate in the field, Cox received 50,000 less vote, than the Republican and Progressive candidates combined. In 1914, although there was still a progressive candidate for the Governorship, Willis defeated Cox by 31,000. If he had received the Progressive vote also, his majority would have been more than 90,000. In 1916 Cox was carried through by the Wilson deception and in 1918 he won through a local issue which turned to the Democratic column a country normally Republican. His majority in 1918 was only 12,000.

"Contrasted with this record, the Harding vote makes an exceedingly good showing. Harding was elected Senator in 1914, with a Progressive candidate in the field to divide his vote. Nevertheless, Harding was elected by a plurality of more than 100,000 at the same time that Cox was defeated by 29,000 in his race for the Governorship. Harding received a total of 526,115 votes for the Senatorship. The vote for Cox in the same year was 493,367, or about 33,000 less than the Harding vote. That was the highest vote Cox ever received, his vote in 1918 being only 486,000 or 46,000 less than the Harding vote in 1914.

"Cox has never won election that could be called a personal victory. Harding won the Senatorship even with the disadvantage of a divided party. Cox has been known as a cunning politician who could take advantage of special conditions. Harding has been a statesman who brought strength to his party ticket and received more than his normal party vote. When Cox won by the narrow margin of 5,159 in 1916, he polled nearly [illegible] fewer votes than did Wilson, who dragged Cox through. When Cox won by a little more than 5,000, Pomerene carried the Senatorship by 25,000 and Wilson carried Ohio by nearly 90,000.

"It is manifest from the figures that the effort to play up Cox as a great vote-getter [illegible] has been [illegible] [illegible]."

BROOKVILLE IS EASY PICKING FOR C. C. A. A.

Locals Give Jefferson Boys Running Start In First But Drubbed 'Em Just The Same

BASE RUNNING A FEATURE

The local C. C. A. A. ball team took the strong Brookville aggregation into camp in a game at the driving park yesterday afternoon, the final count giving Clearfield 6 and Brookville 2 runs.

Alexander was selected for the hurling assignment by Manager Lytle. His first inning debut was far from auspicious. Swanson, first up, laced a neat single between third and second. Clark bounced a single off Alex's shin. Warren was out on a fly to third. Wilson hit a Texas Leaguer back of Lord which neither Hicks nor Lavan was able to grab, altho both made a hard try for it. Swanson scored on the hit and when McDonald heaved a high one over second in an attempt to catch Wilson stealing, Clark also scored. McCracken cracked out the fourth hit of the inning but Smith was out from third to first, while Farley fanned, ending the agony.

Alex buckled down to business in the second and was never in danger again. He allowed but three hits in the remaining eight innings, but twenty-six men facing him.

Miller pitched for Brookville. It was his first appearance here. He started in like a world beater, retiring the side in one, two, three order. He threw Lavan out at first and fanned both Martin and McDonald. Yates opened the second with a single. Hicks sent him along to second with a neat sacrifice bunt. Robinson hit for a single and Yates scored on the hit. Robby was put out at third and Neville ended the inning with a fly to first.

In the fourth McDonald hit safely and by good base running and a slip-up by Swanson, raced across the pan with the tying run. Alex doubled to left centre in the fifth after Rowles was out on a fly, but Miller disposed of Lavan and Martin without farther damage.

McDonald opened the sixth with his second single. Yates sacrificed him to second and Hicks then cracked out a dandy two-bagger to centre scoring "Mac." Robinson was out, pitcher to first, and Neville fanned.

In the eighth Martin went out on a fly to centre but McDonald again came thru with a single. Yates did likewise. Hicks made two attempts to bunt, the ball rolling foul each time, and then missed the third one. Robinson and Neville singled and McDonald, Yates and Robinson scored. Rowles ended the inning by fanning out.

The locals played great ball in all departments of the game, giving the best exhibition of base running seen this season. McDonald, Yates and Robinson were the star performers both in the field and at bat. Hicks in left impressed the fans with his work in the field and at bat.

POLITICAL EXPEDIENCY MOTIVE OF N. C. GOVERNOR URGING SUFFRAGE

RALEIGH, N. C., August 13—In a speech of which a large part was an argument against woman suffrage Governor Bickett today urged the North Carolina legislature in joint session here to ratify the Susan B. Anthony amendment to the constitution. Bickett announced at the outset he personally opposed the measure "because of a great fear that woman suffrage would reopen the old race problem and force us to fight the white battle in North Carolina over again." He said he was "in deepest sympathy" with the sentiment of the 63 legislators who signed a message to the Tennessee legislature urging them not to ratify.

Governor Bickett declared, however, that the women should have a voice in deciding whether the League of Nations covenant is adopted and, as they are the mothers of soldiers, should be allowed to voice their sentiment with regard to a law making war impossible. He said that woman suffrage was a condition not a theory and urged the legislature to accept the situation with good grace and become the 36th state to ratify the amendment.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., August 13—The committee on constitutional amendment reported to the State Senate today recommending favorable action on the federal suffrage amendment.

PATHETIC SCENES MARK FALL OF THE PONZI MUSHROOM

BOSTON, Aug. 13.—Charles Ponzi whose financial house built on shifting sands crumbled, today received a letter threatening his life, he told the police. The letter was written by a man who said he had trailed Ponzi for twelve years. Police believe he is one who suffered in Ponzi's financial operations in Montreal just twelve years ago. The writer threatened to "get" Ponzi soon.

Among the hundreds who called at Attorney General Allen's office today were many working girls from 18 to 25. Most of them had invested as they had with Ponzi. All were worried. There were also many youths. An aged Jewish tailor stood in the line and wept piteously. One thousand dollars, his saving of fifteen years of toil with the needle, was gone. He was broken hearted. A painter from the north end of the city was also in the line. He said he had given Ponzi $9,000 in [illegible] home which he intended to do. Many Italians were in the line but the majority were native born Americans, mostly factory girls, carried away by Ponzi's promise of 50 per cent, in 90 days. Attorney General Allen said he was investigating today to determine whether Ponzi's agents [illegible] able for the loss of the investors.

ERWIN BERGDOLL CONVICTED BY COURT MARSHAL

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—Court-martial of Erwin Rudolph Bergdoll, wealthy Philadelphian charged with desertion from the army in evading the draft law, ended on Governor's Island today when a verdict was reached after less than five minutes' deliberation by the court.

The verdict came shortly after news of the arrest near Oneonta, N. Y. of a man said to answer the description of Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, Erwin's brother, who escaped from the military authorities at Philadelphia while on a secret mission to recover "buried treasure," from the hills of Maryland.

The finding of the court will remain secret until passed upon by Major General Bullard, commander of the department of the East.

A little thing like lynching the wrong man does not seem to worry some southern communities.

Ohioans are inclined to the belief that a presidential election is a purely local matter.

It is easy for a candidate to see than an incompetent will get into office if his opponent wins.

It takes some folks a long time to learn that obedience to law is the best insurance against trouble.

One of the things that come back this year is the perfect abandon with which campaign managers claim everything in sight.

A "NEWSPAPER" CAMPAIGN

No one has his views on important subjects more completely on record than a newspaper editor. The outstanding feature of the 1920 presidential campaign is that the Republican and Democratic candidates are in the habit of reaching the public not only by appearing before as many audiences as possible, but by committing themselves on all vital subjects day after day in the editorial columns of their respective newspapers. The trend of their convictions is on record as it has been developing daily through practically all the years of their mature lives.

Harding and Cox understand the great power of daily persistent appeals to the public and they know how to get those appeals across to busy people who depend upon the newspapers for brief lines of significent comment on important issues, readable at a glance, and for direct, simple yet forceful expressions of opinions such as can be written best by an experienced editor. This year the newspaper reporters will have the somewhat unique experience of preparing copy with the candidates, instead of simply preparing it about them.

Cox expects to "swing around the circle." Harding plans to stay on his own front porch. The real championship series between the two men however will be in the arena of the printed page. This gives everyone an unusually good opportunity to follow the entire contest. This year's campaign will stage its main events right on your own front door step every day, provided, of course, that your newsboy delivers the papers there and does not drop them under the porch or in the bushes!

"A NATION, like an individual, cannot afford to neglect the attaining of good will. No one state in our blessed union of 48 can afford to overlook the fact that it is but one unit depending upon all the others—one for all and all for one. Whatever it possesses of special merit is marketable only in the degree that it caters to the good will of all outside itself. No state can stand alone," says Mr. Frank Baackes, V. P. American Steel & Wire Co.

"We must not expect intelligent well schooled young men and women to stick around the squalid mud bound farm or village. It is too much to ask. Ignorance of the beyond has heretofore held them, but holds them no longer. So therefore, it is up to the cities to see that the state does everything possible to make the interior homelike and attractive.

"This can be done only by building dry, hard, indestructible reinforced concrete highways so that they may go to the world and the world may go to them freely and untrammeled. Automobiles and people will then flow in and out, and the most lonesome farm will then be brought into lively contact with the world.

"Distance is being annihilated. All centers must be connected with good roads, and always passable feeder roads must lead in from every district however remote. We can then be sure that our population will maintain its balance in town and country."

Quaint Packing of Eggs.

In many Korean towns one sees piles of eggs outside the shops done up in straw rolls. This is the Korean method of packing eggs. There are, as a rule, ten eggs in a roll, and the straw casing is so cleverly twisted and so strongly woven that it can be moved without fear of the eggs falling out. A native will lift up a roll, place it across his shoulders and run away, and though the roll may sway dangerously to and fro its contents always remain intact.

CURWENSVILLE

Dr. Miller of Grampian was a non-professional visitor to Curwensville yesterday.

Dr. and Mrs. Alt were summoned to Baltimore yesterday upon receipt of a telegram announcing the critical condition of their only son Kenneth Alt. He was operated on in one of the hospitals for appendicitis when it was found that he was afflicted with peritonitis also. The Doctor and wife left on the 1 o'clock p. m. P. R. R. train for Baltimore.

Henry Hile who has been a rural mail carrier on Route No. 1 for the past twelve years has resigned and will devote his time to agriculture and shipping coal from his mine located on his Pike township farm. Examination of applicants to fill the vacancy will be held shortly by a government official. Already two persons have signified their willingness to undertake the job.

Mr. and Mrs. William Post who reside on Bridgeport hill near town are expected to arrive home this week from a several weeks visit with Mr. Post's sister, Mrs. Scale of Sault Ste Marie, Michigan.

James Mulready an expert buffer formerly employed by the Pennsylvania Hide and Leather company for a number of years has gone to Elmira, N. Y., where he has secured employment in the large tanning tannery in that city.

Messrs. West and Aiamo [illegible] leave of the coal under the Sandy Farm (formerly the Hartshorn farm) in Pike township and will commence mining the dusky diamond at once. They will not load their coal by the wagon method but will haul [illegible] to the B. R. & P. [illegible] and load it on a tipple near Ferndiff.

Street Commissioner Wm. F. Low-Cost Mileage—Get It in Goodyear Small Car Tires

There is no economy in buying so-called bargains in tires offered at sensationally cheap prices when a well-made tire delivers mileage at a considerably lower rate of cost.

Add the time and trouble occasioned by frequent replacements and it is fully apparent why tire users, seeking real mileage economy, are not attracted to very cheaply priced tires.

The popularity of Goodyear Tires, of the 30 x 3-, 30 x 3½- and 31 x 4-inch sizes, is based on the fact that they are built to deliver exceptional mileage at low cost and consistently do so.

If you own a Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell or other car taking these sizes, go to your nearest Service Station for Goodyear Tires—for true Goodyear mileage, value, economy.

30 x 3½ Goodyear Double Cure Fabric, All Weather Tread $23.50

30 x 3½ Goodyear Single Cure Fabric, Anti-Skid Tread $21.50

Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes cost no more than the price you are asked to pay for tubes of less merit—why risk costly casings when such sure protection is available? 30 x 3½ size in waterproof bag $4.50

French Guiana.

French Guiana is the penal settlement of France. Its surface rises gradually from the unhealthful coast to the mountain border on the south. Only a small part of the country is known. Fevers particularly yellow fever, decimate the region and have proved so fatal to French convicts that white prisoners have long been sent elsewhere. The Ile du Diable, off the coast, became famous through the imprisonment of Alfred Dreyfus.

Practice Kindness Now.

There are kindnesses, hospitalities public and private duties, and fellowship in the civic and social life of one's calling and station which help to make our sojourn here satisfying and gratifying. These should not be postponed nor stinted. "I expect to pass through life but once. If, therefore, there be any kindness I can show or any good thing I can do to any fellow-being, let me do it now, and not defer or neglect it, as I shall not pass this way again." This always timely text is usually attributed to William Penn. [illegible] J. Desmond.

SCHOOLS OPEN SEPT. 17TH

The Public Schools of Clearfield will open Tuesday, September seventh.

It will save both the pupil and teacher much inconvenience if the pupil will present his promotion slip and "red" card at the first session of school.

The law requires that all pupils must present a certificate of successful vaccination before they can be admitted to school.

Parents who have children who have not been successfully vaccinated, and whom they expect to send to school this fall, should have them vaccinated now. It is unfair to both the pupil and the school to have the pupil undergo the inconvenience of being vaccinated at the same time they are trying to adjust themselves to school conditions for the first time.

WHAT MINERS HAVE DONE

The report of the United States Bureau of Mines, just published, not only acquits the bituminous coal miner of a charge too commonly repeated but places credit where it belongs. The American miner, instead of "loafing on the job" has worked hard, not only when his labor was critically needed, but actually expanded the per capita producton from 729 short tone per man in 1901 to 1,134 short tons per man in 1918. The tonnage of that year, under the stressful demand of war, exceeded all records. What is assuring is the fact that the 1920 production of bituminous coal is only a lttle short of the extraordinary output of 1918, which places responsbility for any shortage of coal squarely upon other shoulders than those of the men who do the digging. The growth of 405 short tons per capita output per year between 1901 and 1918 permits no quibbling on whether the miners have been standing up to the job. The traditional three tons per day per man is oldfashioned as an average and has given way to a production of 460,945 tons per day per miner, placing heavier emphasis upon the readiness of the worker to expand the volume of tonnage sent to the surface. The other factors which contribute to increase in production, such as improved apparatus, divide credit with the miners' actual capacity as a producer but without his co-operation would be of minimum value. The miner has not always received the commendation that is his due.

The dissatisfaction of day workers in the central competitive field, with Illinois as the storm center, has been allayed far enough to carry the strikers back to work and bring an order from President Wilson calling a meeting of the coal commission for Friday this week. He advises that the commission go thoroughly over the whole wage situation to discover any inequalities that may have entered into the former award and which founded the strike of the Illinois and Indiana day men July 30. With the assistance the miners and their organization representatives will be able to tender, the claim of drivers and day laborers for an advance in pay equal to that of other mine workerse should be susceptible to prompt judgment.—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

MRS. DAVID RAFFERTY

Died August 10, 1920, Mrs. David Rafferty. The tidings of the sudden death of this estimable lady was a shock to her many friends.

Nancy McKeown Rafferty was born Oct. 10, 1865. She was the oldest living daughter of James McKeown, one of the few surviving pioneer settlers in Penn township. She was united in marriage to David Rafferty about 35 years ago. To this union were born 9 children, six of whom grew to young manhood and womanhood. Her husband and two daughters, Mable and Marion, two sons, Ambrose and Leo, are at home. Edward, her eldest son, was killed on the battlefield, Argonne, France. Sorrow for this child, closely followed by the sudden death of her doughter Martha, caused a nervous breakdown from which she never recovered.

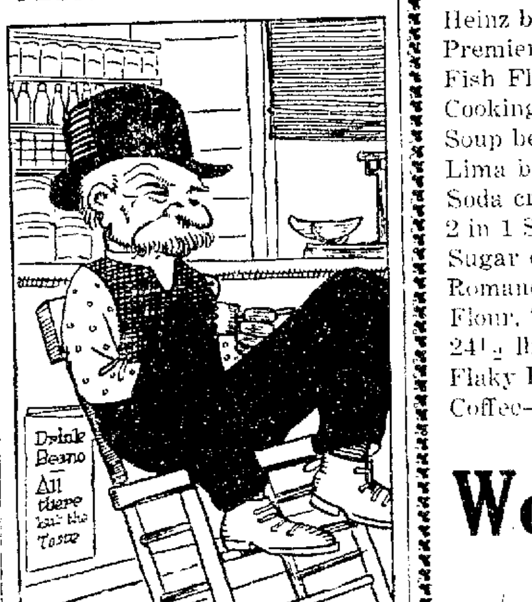

Aunt Nan, as she was lovingly called, was a quiet, generous, unassuming woman, her greatest joy in life the welfare of her family.

Her funeral will be held from St. Bonaventures Church, Osceola, Friday morning, at 10:30, Rev. P. A. Lynch officiating.

Enjoyable Sensation.

Emily was tired one night and quite ready to go to bed. As she lay back on her little pillow she said, with a big sigh: "Oh, how I love to relapse!"

Age of the World.

John Von Muller, a historian who spent much time in research work on the age of the world, arrived at a conclusion which in 1920 would make the world 7,642 years old. His figures are generally accepted, because they are based on Biblical references and facts.

Tolling a Big Bell.

At the Church of the Sacred Heart, in Paris, a 22-ton bell is tolled by electricity. A choir boy now does the work which formerly required the services of five men.

"A Woman of Impulse"

Produced with all the lavishness of modern picturecraft "A WOMAN OF IMPULSE" depicts a story ranging from society magnificence to a passionate romance in old New Orleans. It is a rare ensemble of keen action, exquisite beauty and remarkable talent.

(National Crop Improvement Service.)

As the demand for cars is unabated and there is little chance for getting any more cars, why not use the cars we have to the fullest capacity?

The Chicago Piano & Organ association, has started a campaign among its members suggesting that requests be sent to all customers urging everyone to speed up. They say:

"With the impending crop movement upon us and the movement of coal together with the tremendous tonnage of other products, it is recommended that the best possible use be made of present facilities.

"If 1,000 car users will load or unload one car one day earlier, 1,000 cars per day will be released for service.

"We recommend that orders be placed now for shipment as early as goods can be removed. An earnest, tangible effort on the part of our trade to assist transportation authorities, will go far toward preventing priority orders of any action tending to deprive us of transportation facilities."

This appeal is being handed along to all of the other lines of trade. It is said that we are 200,000 freight cars short. A loaded freight car should travel about 29 miles a day. We should from the million or so cars we have now, be able to largely offset the lack of cars by speeding up our loading and unloading.

DISHES FOR OCCASIONS.

When making cake for company try the following:

White Cake—Take one and one-half cupfuls of sugar, one-half cupful of butter, one cupful of milk, the whites of four eggs and two teaspoonfuls of baking powder sifted in one-half cupful of flour. Cream the sugar and butter and add one and one-half cupfuls of [illegible] alternately with the milk, beating and mixing until smooth, then add the half cupful of flour sifted with the baking powder. Fold in the stiffly beaten whites the last thing. Bake in a loaf.

Pineapple Pie—Prepare a rich paste [illegible]. Fill with the following: One cupful of shredded pineapple, one tablespoonful of butter, the yolks of two eggs, one cupful of sugar. Beat the sugar and butter to a cream, add the beaten yolks and the pineapple. Cover with a meringue made from the whites or they may be added before baking and the pie served with whipped cream.

Imperial Muffins—Add one-fourth of a cupful of sugar to one cupful of [illegible]. When lukewarm add one-half of a yeast cake dissolved in one-fourth of a cupful of lukewarm water. Add one-half teaspoonful of salt and [illegible] cupfuls of flour; let rise over night. In the morning fill buttered muffin pans [illegible] full. Let rise until [illegible] full, then bake thirty minutes in a hot oven.

Maple Parfait—Beat four eggs slightly and pour on slowly one cupful of hot maple sirup. Cook until the mixture thickens, then remove from the heat at once. Cool and add one pint of cream beaten until stiff. Put in a mold, pack in ice and salt. Let stand three to four hours.

Ginger Punch—Take one-half pound of canton ginger, chop, add three [illegible] of sirup. Cook [illegible] one quart of water and [illegible] of sugar 15 minutes with the ginger [illegible], cool, strain, add one-half cupful each of orange juice and lemon juice and one quart of [illegible] chilled and serve.

NEW ANTI-BOLSHEVIK POLICY AND BREAK WITH BRITAIN IS CAUSE

MILLERAND SLATED FOR PRESIDENCY AND BRIAND FOR PREMIER IN CASE DESCHANEL STEPS OUT OF CHAIR

PRESS AIRS ANGLO-FRENCH DISPUTE

PARIS, August 13—The resignation of President Deschanel is imminent as a result of France's new aggressive anti-Bolsheviki policy and the diplomatic misunderstanding with Great Britain it was reported in high political circles today.

It was also declared that it was considered likely that Premier Millerand would be appointed President and Briand appointed Premier.

The press today generally decared that "recognition of General Wrangel, anti-Bolsheviki governor by France was a mere incident in the gradual division on the Russian policy between France and Great Britain. This division has extended for months, the newspapers say.

France and Great Britain were negotiating today to smooth out the differences with regard to Russia. They will discuss what to do in case the Minsk armistice parley fails to bring a cessation of hostilities.

Premier Millerand in an address at Noyon made the first public expression of France's attitude and said that "the Allies will remain united. Differences of opinion are inevitable because of the difference in national character but unity will be continued."

PARIS, August 13—France today sent a note to the United States declaring it holds the same views with regard to Russia as were expressed by President Wilson in his note to the Italian ambassador.

LONDON, August 13—Communication between Premier Lloyd George and Premier Millerand on recognition by France of General Wrangel, anti-Bolsheviki governor was continuing this afteroon, it was learned in official quarters. The general impression was that the situation was easier but that a week end conference would be necessary.

ROME, August 12—Italy today appears likely to align itself with Britain. There has been no official expression on the subject of diplomatic misunderstanding between Britain and France only newspaper comment on the opinions of members of the government who favor Britain because of her desire of peace with Russia rather than France's belligerent attitude.

PASQUALE, INCURABLY ILL, MAY DIE BEFORE BEING BROUGAT TO TRIAL

NORRISTOWN, August 13—Authorities here today express fear that Augusto Pasquale held in connection with the kidnapping of Blakely Coughlin might die before he could be brought to trial. Pasquale they said has lost 30 pounds since his arrest at Egg Harbor, N. J., July 12, and was suffering from an incurable disease. A preliminary hearing on a charge of murder was expected to be held today. The police believe the baby is dead and are bending their efforts to find the body so as to have a clear case against the prisoner.

Montgomery county officials took steps yesterday looking to the arraignment of Auguste Pasquale, "The Crank," on the charge of murder, the officials believing that he killed fifteen-months-old Blakely Coughlin, who was kidnapped June 2. It is now the expressed belief the baby is dead, that Pasquale played a lone hand when he abducted the child and that to escape conviction, he murdered the baby and disposed of the body.

ANOTHER FINDS GAS AND LIQUOR COSTLY MIXTURE

Another convivial soul tried mixing gasoline with booze, or vice versa, today and the kick of the mixture ran him straight into the arms of the Pennsylvania State Police. Accordingly he was made to travel the same path as had been trod yesterday by the fellow who took too much of the Woodland road.

Both of these fellows hoped to get off with a one hundred dollar fine before the Justice of the Peace, but the Justice in looking over his instruction book found that driving a car while intoxicated was a misdemeanor which could not be settled before his court.

Both were accordingly bound over to the next term of court when they will be asked to tell "His Honor" about their wanton disregard for the life and limb of fellow men.

80TH DIV. VETS TO OBSERVE "WRITE TO YOUR BUDDY" WEEK

Several thousand veterans of the Blue Ridge Division in Virginia, West Virginia and Pennsylvania already have expressed their intention of attending the first annual reunion of the Eightieth Division Veterans' Association, which will be held in Richmond, Va., September 4th, 5th and 6th, but they will observe the week of August 8th to 14th as "Write Your Buddy Week," and are confident that many other men can be gathered together for the reunion.

Each man has been asked to write his Buddy, whether the lasting friendship was made in the barracks or in the trenches, and to urge him to journey to Richmond for the reunion. There will be a renewal of old friendships, the swapping of stories and experiences, and a resurrection of that comradeship that existed among the men of the Eightieth while they were in action.

"No matter whether your Buddy lives in West Virginia, Pennsylvania or the Old Dominion write him and urge him to meet you in Richmond," the veterans were told. "Perhaps your letter will be the one thing that will bring him to Richmond, where as much time as possible will be given for unit reunions. Tell him also that arrangements may be made for you two to bunk together, and when he remembers the old days surely he will come along." The expenses while in Richmond, thru the arrangements being made by the reunion committee, will be next to nothing to those who cannot afford an expensive trip, for $5.00 will cover their expenses for the three days they are in the city.

Second only in importance to the permanent organization of the Eightieth Division Veterans' Association, which will be completed at the business meeting on September 6th, will be the election of one-half of the Executive Council, which is composed of eight members. Four will be elected this year and four at the next reunion. One member of the Council will be elected this year from Virginia, West Virginia and Pennsylvania, and a fourth at large.

DEVOTEES OF ROD AND GUN CLUB THIS EVENING

Every hunter, fisherman and sportsman generally should attend the meeting in the Arbitration Room of the Court House this evening at 8:30 o'clock and join the Clearfield County branch of the Pennsylvania Wild Life League. This organization has a great work before it and everybody interested in wild life and the out-of-doors should make sure to join.

Every member of a hunting club or camp should make it his business to affiliate with this organization.

Representatives from many sections of the county are expected to be present at the meeting.

Rev. C. C. Snavely, of the West Side Methodist Church, has returned from a delightful vacation spent on a Blair County farm. The vacation was very much enjoyed, even though three different couples had to go elsewhere after visiting the parsonage to have the "marrying parson" tie the marital knot. He's on the job at the old stand from henceforth, however.

RECORD SHOWS COX NOT A WHIRLWIND AS VOTE GETTER

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13—"It is common knowledge and frequent comment among political workers that the nomination of the two candidates on the Democratic ticket was determined by expediency—the playing of a forlorn hope," declares the Republican Publicity Association, through its President, Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Jr., in a statement issued today.

"Cox was chosen because he comes from the same state as Harding, and Roosevelt was named as his running mate because he bears the name of a distinguished American. It was hoped that Cox could carry Ohio for the Democratic ticket and Roosevelt swing New York. There is no likelihood, however, that the voters of New York will be misled by the use of the name of the greatest American of recent years, nor is there anything to justify the hope that Cox may be able to carry Ohio against Harding.

"Study of election returns shows Harding to be stronger in Ohio than is Cox. And, moreover, under ordinary circumstances, Ohio is a pretty dependable Republican state. Beginning with the election which placed Abraham Lincoln in the White House and recorded the first victory for the Republican party, there have been fifteen national elections, and Ohio has gone Republican in 13 of them. The only occasions on which Ohio went Democratic were in 1912 when the Republican party was divided, and in 1916, when the country was deceived by the "kept-us-out-of-war" propaganda. In 1912, although the Democrats led, the combined vote of the Republicans and the Progressives exceeded that of the Democrats, showing that the defeat of the Republican was due to division and not to preference for Democratic policies. Out of 22 members of Congress from Ohio, 14 are Republicans.

"In 1912, when Cox was first elected Governor, there was a progressive candidate in the field, Cox received 50,000 less vote, than the Republican and Progressive candidates combined. In 1914, although there was still a progressive candidate for the Governorship, Willis defeated Cox by 31,000. If he had received the Progressive vote also, his majority would have been more than 90,000. In 1916 Cox was carried through by the Wilson deception and in 1918 he won through a local issue which turned to the Democratic column a country normally Republican. His majority in 1918 was only 12,000.

"Contrasted with this record, the Harding vote makes an exceedingly good showing. Harding was elected Senator in 1914, with a Progressive candidate in the field to divide his vote. Nevertheless, Harding was elected by a plurality of more than 100,000 at the same time that Cox was defeated by 29,000 in his race for the Governorship. Harding received a total of 526,115 votes for the Senatorship. The vote for Cox in the same year was 493,367, or about 33,000 less than the Harding vote. That was the highest vote Cox ever received, his vote in 1918 being only 486,000 or 46,000 less than the Harding vote in 1914.

"Cox has never won election that could be called a personal victory. Harding won the Senatorship even with the disadvantage of a divided party. Cox has been known as a cunning politician who could take advantage of special conditions. Harding has been a statesman who brought strength to his party ticket and received more than his normal party vote. When Cox won by the narrow margin of 5,159 in 1916, he polled nearly [illegible] fewer votes than did Wilson, who dragged Cox through. When Cox won by a little more than 5,000, Pomerene carried the Senatorship by 25,000 and Wilson carried Ohio by nearly 90,000.

"It is manifest from the figures that the effort to play up Cox as a great vote-getter [illegible] has been [illegible]"

BROOKVILLE IS EASY PICKING FOR C. C. A. A.

Locals Give Jefferson Boys Running Start In First But Drubbed 'Em Just The Same

BASE RUNNING A FEATURE

The local C. C. A. A. ball team took the strong Brookville aggregation into camp in a game at the driving park yesterday afternoon, the final count giving Clearfield 6 and Brookville 2 runs.

Alexander was selected for the hurling assignment by Manager Lytle. His first inning debut was far from auspicious. Swanson, first up, laced a neat single between third and second. Clark bounced a single off Alex's shin. Warren was out on a fly to third. Wilson hit a Texas Leaguer back of Lord which neither Hicks nor Lavan was able to grab, altho both made a hard try for it. Swanson scored on the hit and when McDonald heaved a high one over second in an attempt to catch Wilson stealing, Clark also scored. McCracken cracked out the fourth hit of the inning but Smith was out from third to first, while Farley fanned, ending the agony.

Alex buckled down to business in the second and was never in danger again. He allowed but three hits in the remaining eight innings, but twenty-six men facing him.

Miller pitched for Brookville. It was his first appearance here. He started in like a world beater, retiring the side in one, two, three order. He threw Lavan out at first and fanned both Martin and McDonald. Yates opened the second with a single, Hicks sent him along to second with a neat sacrifice bunt. Robinson hit for a single and Yates scored on the hit. Robby was put out at third and Neville ended the inning with a fly to first.

In the fourth McDonald hit safely and by good base running and a slip-up by Swanson, raced across the pan with the tying run. Alex doubled to left centre in the fifth after Rowles was out on a fly, but Miller disposed of Lavan and Martin without farther damage.

McDonald opened the sixth with his second single. Yates sacrificed him to second and Hicks then cracked out a dandy two-bagger to centre scoring "Mac." Robinson was out, pitcher to first, and Neville fanned.

In the eighth Martin went out on a fly to centre but McDonald again came thru with a single. Yates did likewise. Hicks made two attempts to bunt, the ball rolling foul each time, and then missed the third one. Robinson and Neville singled and McDonald, Yates and Robinson scored. Rowles ended the inning by fanning out.

The locals played great ball in all departments of the game, giving the best exhibition of base running seen this season. McDonald, Yates and Robinson were the star performers both in the field and at the bat. Hicks in left impressed the fans with his work in the field and at bat.

POLITICAL EXPEDIENCY MOTIVE OF N. C. GOVERNOR URGING SUFFRAGE

RALEIGH, N. C., August 13—In a speech of which a large part was an argument against woman suffrage Governor Bickett today urged the North Carolina legislature in joint session here to ratify the Susan B. Anthony amendment to the constitution. Bickett announced at the outset he personally opposed the measure "because of a great fear that woman suffrage would reopen the old race problem and force us to fight the white battle in North Carolina over again." He said he was "in deepest sympathy" with the sentiment of the 63 legislators who signed a message to the Tennessee legislature urging them not to ratify.

Governor Bickett declared, however, that the women should have a voice in deciding whether the League of Nations covenant is adopted and, as they are the mothers of soldiers, should be allowed to voice their sentiment with regard to a law making war impossible. He said that woman suffrage was a condition not a theory and urged the legislature to accept the situation with good grace and become the 36th state to ratify the amendment.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., August 13—The committee on constitutional amendment reported to the State Senate today recommending favorable action on the federal suffrage amendment.

PATHETIC SCENES MARK FALL OF THE PONZI MUSHROOM

BOSTON, Aug. 13—Charles Ponzi whose financial house built on shifting sands crumbled, today received a letter threatening his life, he told the police. The letter was written by a man who said he had trailed Ponzi for twelve years. Police believe [illegible] one who suffered in Ponzi's financial operations in Montreal just twelve years ago. The writer threatened to "get" Ponzi soon.

Among the hundreds who called at Attorney General Allen's office today were many working girls from 18 to 25. Most of them had invested as they lost with Ponzi. All were worried. There were also many youths. An aged Jewish tailor stood in the line and wept piteously. One thousand dollars, his saving of fifteen years of toil with the needle, was gone. He was broken hearted. A painter from [illegible] of the city was also in the line. He said he had given Ponzi [illegible] in [illegible] of building a home which he intended to do. Many Italians were in the line but the majority were native born Americans, mostly factory girls carried away by Ponzi's promise of 50 per cent in 90 days. Attorney General Allen said he was investigating today to determine whether Ponzi's agents [illegible] liable for the loss of the investors.

ERWIN BERGDOLL CONVICTED BY COURT MARSHAL

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—Court-martial of Erwin Rudolph Bergdoll, wealthy Philadelphian charged with [illegible] from the army in evading the draft law, ended on Governor's Island today when a verdict was reached after less than five minutes' deliberation by the court.

The verdict came shortly after news of the arrest near Oneonta, N. Y., of a man said to answer the description of Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, Erwin's brother, who escaped from the military authorities at Philadelphia while on a secret mission to recover "buried treasure" from the hills of Maryland.

The finding of the court will remain secret until passed upon by Major General Bullard, commander of the department of the East.

A "NEWSPAPER" CAMPAIGN

No one has his views on important subjects more completely on record than a newspaper editor The outstanding feature of the 1920 presidential campaign is that the Republican and Democratic candidates are in the habit of reaching the public not only by appearing before as many audiences as possible, but by committing themselves on all vital subjects day after day in the editorial columns of their respective newspapers The trend of their convictions is on record as it has been developing daily through practically all the years of their mature lives

Harding and Cox understand the great power of daily persistent appeals to the public and they know how to get those appeals across to busy people who depend upon the newspapers for brief lines of significent comment on important issues, readable at a glance, and for direct, simple yet forceful expressions of opinions such as can be written best by an experienced editor This year the newspaper reporters will have the somewhat unique experience of preparing copy with the candidates, instead of simply preparing it about them

Cox expects to "swing around the circle" Harding plans to stay on his own front porch The real championship series between the two men however will be in the arena of the printed page This gives everyone an unusually good opportunity to follow the entire contest This year's campaign will stage its main events right on your own front door step every day, provided, of course, that your newsboy delivers the papers there and does not drop them under the porch or in the bushes!

"A NATION, like an individual, cannot afford to neglect the attaining of good will. No one state in our blessed union of 48 can afford to overlook the fact that it is but one unit depending upon all the others—one for all and all for one. Whatever it possesses of special merit is marketable only in the degree that it caters to the good will of all outside itself. No state can stand alone," says Mr. Frank Baackes, V. P. American Steel & Wire Co.

"We must not expect intelligent well schooled young men and women to stick around the squalid mud bound farm or village. It is too much to ask. Ignorance of the beyond has heretofore held them, but holds them no longer. So therefore, it is up to the cities to see that the state does everything possible to make the interior homelike and attractive.

"This can be done only by building dry, hard, indestructible reinforced concrete highways so that they may go to the world and the world may go to them freely and untrammeled. Automobiles and people will then flow in and out, and the most lonesome farm will then be brought into lively contact with the world.

"Distance is being annihilated. All centers must be connected with good roads, and always passable feeder roads must lead in from every district however remote. We can then be sure that our population will maintain its balance in town and country."

When a Tartar invites an honored guest to eat and drink he will take him by the ear and lead him up to the table.

Quaint Packing of Eggs.

In many Korean towns one sees piles of eggs outside the shops done up in straw rolls. This is the Korean method of packing eggs. There are, as a rule, ten eggs in a roll, and the straw casing is so cleverly twisted and so strongly woven that it can be moved without fear of the eggs falling out. A native will lift up a roll, place it across his shoulders and carry it away, and though the roll may sway dangerously to and fro its contents always remain intact.

Low-Cost Mileage—Get It in Goodyear Small Car Tires

There is no economy in buying so-called bargains in tires offered at sensationally cheap prices when a well-made tire delivers mileage at a considerably lower rate of cost.

Add the time and trouble occasioned by frequent replacements and it is fully apparent why tire users, seeking real mileage economy, are not attracted to very cheaply priced tires.

The popularity of Goodyear Tires, of the 30 x 3-, 30 x 3½- and 31 x 4-inch sizes, is based on the fact that they are built to deliver exceptional mileage at low cost and consistently do so.

If you own a Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell or other car taking these sizes, go to your nearest Service Station for Goodyear Tires—for true Goodyear mileage, value, economy.

30 x 3½ Goodyear Double Cure Fabric, All Weather Tread $23.50

30 x 3½ Goodyear Single Cure Fabric, Anti Skid Tread $21.50

Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes cost no more than the price you are asked to pay for tubes of less merit—why risk costly casings when such sure protection is available? 30 x 3½ size in waterproof bag $4.50

French Guiana.

French Guiana is the penal settlement of France. Its surface rises gradually from the unhealthful coast to the mountain border on the south. Only a small part of the country is known. Fevers particularly yellow fever, decimate the region and have proved so fatal to French convicts that white prisoners have long been sent elsewhere. The Ile du Diable, off the coast, became famous through the imprisonment of Alfred Dreyfus.

SCHOOLS OPEN SEPT. 17TH

The Public Schools of Clearfield will open Tuesday, September seventh.

It will save both the pupil and teacher much inconvenience if the pupil will present his promotion slip and "red" card at the first session of school.

The law requires that all pupils must present a certificate of successful vaccination before they can be admitted to school.

Parents who have children who have not been successfully vaccinated, and whom they expect to send to school this fall, should have them vaccinated now. It is unfair to both the pupil and the school to have the pupil undergo the inconvenience of being vaccinated at the same time they are trying to adjust themselves to school conditions for the first time.

WHAT MINERS HAVE DONE

The report of the United States Bureau of Mines, just published, not only acquits the bituminous coal miner of a charge too commonly repeated but places credit where it belongs. The American miner, instead of "loafing on the job" has worked hard, not only when his labor was critically needed, but actually expanded the per capita producton from 729 short tone per man in 1901 to 1,134 short tons per man in 1918. The tonnage of that year, under the stressful demand of war, exceeded all records. What is assuring is the fact that the 1920 production of bituminous coal is only a little short of the extraordinary output of 1918, which places responsbility for any shortage of coal squarely upon other shoulders than those of the men who do the digging. The growth of 405 short tons per capita output per year between 1901 and 1918 permits no quibbling on whether the miners have been standing up to the job. The traditional three tons per day per man is oldfashioned as an average and has given way to a production of 460,945 tons per day per miner, placing heavier emphasis upon the readiness of the worker to expand the volume of tonnage sent to the surface. The other factors which contribute to increase in production, such as improved apparatus, divide credit with the miners' actual capacity as a producer but without his co-operation would be of minimum value. The miner has not always received the commendation that is his due.

The dissatisfaction of day workers in the central competitive field, with Illinois as the storm center, has been allayed far enough to carry the strikers back to work and bring an order from President Wilson calling a meeting of the coal commission for Friday this week. He advises that the commission go thoroughly over the whole wage situation to discover any inequalities that may have entered into the former award and which founded the strike of the Illinois and Indiana day men July 30. With the assistance the miners and their organization representatives will be able to tender, the claim of drivers and day laborers for an advance in pay equal to that of other mine workerse should be susceptible to prompt judgment.—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

MRS. DAVID RAFFERTY

Died August 10, 1920, Mrs. David Rafferty. The tidings of the sudden death of this estimable lady was a shock to her many friends.

Nancy McKeown Rafferty was born Oct. 10, 1865. She was the oldest living daughter of James McKeown, one of the few surviving pioneer settlers in Penn township. She was united in marriage to David Rafferty about 35 years ago. To this union were born 9 children, six of whom grew to young manhood and womanhood. Her husband and two daughters, Mable and Marion, two sons, Ambrose and Leo, are at home. Edward, her eldest son, was killed on the battlefield, Argonne, France. Sorrow for this child, closely followed by the sudden death of her doughter Martha, caused a nervous breakdown from which she never recovered.

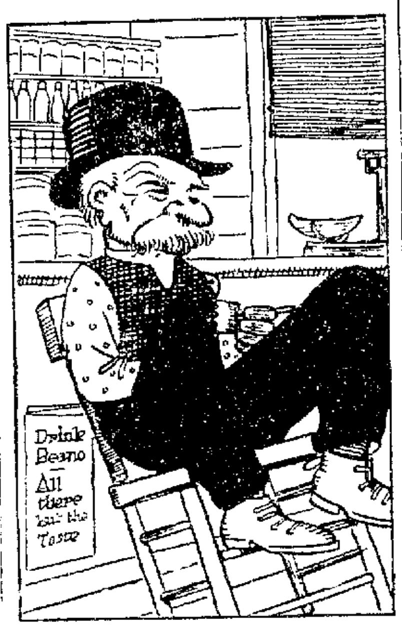

Aunt Nan, as she was lovingly called, was a quiet, generous, unassuming woman, her greatest joy in life the welfare of her family.

Her funeral will be held from St. Bonaventures Church, Osceola, Friday morning, at 10:30, Rev. P. A. Lynch officiating.

Enjoyable Sensation.

Emily was tired one night and quite ready to go to bed. As she lay back on her little pillow she said, with a big sigh: "Oh, how I love to relapse!"

Age of the World.

John Von Muller, a historian who spent much time in research work on the age of the world, arrived at a conclusion which in 1920 would make the world 7,642 years old. His figures are generally accepted, because they are based on Biblical references and facts.

The noted Prima Donna, in

"A Woman of Impulse"

Produced with all the lavishness of modern picturecraft "A WOMAN OF IMPULSE" depicts a story ranging from society magnificence to a passionate romance in old New Orleans. It is a rare ensemble of keen action, exquisite beauty and remarkable talent.

(National Crop Improvement Service.)

As the demand for cars is unabated and there is little chance for getting any more cars, why not use the cars we have to the fullest capacity?

The Chicago Piano & Organ association, has started a campaign among its members suggesting that requests be sent to all customers urging everyone to speed up. They say:

"With the impending crop movement upon us and the movement of coal together with the tremendous tonnage of other products, it is recommended that the best possible use be made of present facilities.

"If 1,000 car users will load or unload one car one day earlier, 1,000 cars per day will be released for service.

"We recommend that orders be placed now for shipment as early as goods can be removed. An earnest, tangible effort on the part of our trade to assist transportation authorities, will go far toward preventing priority orders of any action tending to deprive us of transportation facilities."

This appeal is being handed along to all of the other lines of trade. It is said that we are 200,000 freight cars short. A loaded freight car should travel about 29 miles a day. We should from the million or so cars we have now, be able to largely offset the lack of cars by speeding up our loading and unloading.

Thought Still a Rare Quality.

The tremendous task of teaching men and women to think for themselves has been scarcely begun. All but our very cleverest people are the creatures of a school of thought, or belong to some intellectual herd. Fearless, independent, tolerant thought is still as rare as science was in the fifteenth century.—Herbert N. Casson.

New York's Sensational Waltz Ballad

A Tune That Hums [illegible] the Heart

A [illegible] all the [illegible] New York and [illegible] the country [illegible] "When I'm Gone You'll Soon Forget." [illegible] published with [illegible] Of course there is [illegible] the ending of [illegible] the con[illegible] story in a magazine [illegible] everybody seems to glory [illegible] The following are a few lines of the chorus clipped from a copy just received.

When I'm Gone You'll Soon Forget

Although this song is written with [illegible] a beautiful effect has been obtained by the simplicity of the arrangement. Orchestras and bands everywhere are playing this melody [illegible] waltz. The number can be had for your Talking Machine and Player Piano.

The KITCHEN CABINET

[illegible] Dewey

DISHES FOR OCCASIONS.

When making cake for company try the following:

White Cake.—Take one and one-half cupfuls of sugar, one-half cupful of butter, one cupful of milk, the whites of four eggs and two teaspoonfuls of baking powder sifted in one-half cupful of flour. Cream the sugar and butter and add one and one-half cupfuls of flour alternately with the milk, beating and mixing until smooth, then add the half cupful of flour sifted with the baking powder. Fold in the stiffly beaten whites the last thing. [illegible]

Pineapple Pie.—Prepare a rich pastry [illegible] Fill with the following: One cupful of shredded pineapple [illegible] tablespoonful of butter, the yolks of two eggs, one cupful of [illegible] sugar. [illegible] the sugar and butter [illegible] add the beaten yolks and the pineapple. Cover with a meringue made from the whites or they may be added before baking, and the pie served with whipped cream.

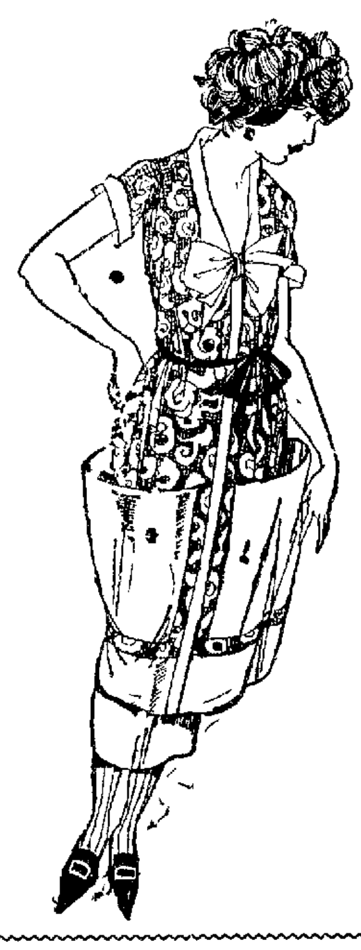

Imperial Muffins.—Add one-fourth of a cupful of [illegible] to one cupful of [illegible]. When lukewarm add one-half cake of yeast [illegible] dissolved in one-fourth of a cupful of lukewarm water. Add one-half teaspoonful of salt and [illegible] cupfuls of flour. [illegible] overnight. In the morning add the butter [illegible] until [illegible] full, then bake thirty minutes in a hot oven.

Maple Parfait.—Beat four eggs slightly, add pouring slowly one cupful of hot maple sirup. Cook until the mixture thickens, then remove from the heat [illegible] Cool and add one pint of cream [illegible] until stiff. Put [illegible] pack in ice and salt [illegible] stand three to four hours.

Ginger Punch.—Take one-half pound of [illegible] ginger, chop, add three tablespoonfuls of sirup. Cook together [illegible] of one quart of water [illegible] cupful of sugar 15 minutes with the [illegible] cool, strain, add one-half cupful each of orange juice and lemon juice and one quart [illegible] chill and serve.
